

Application for the BINGN Apprenticeship Program

Dear potential student, as you are interested in the BINGN Apprenticeship Program for biodynamic agriculture we would like to ask you to fill out our application form. We want to ask you a few questions about your interest, motivation, experiences and biography. This application form is meant to get a first impression of your interest in our program and your connection to biodynamic agriculture.

After filling out this form we will contact you to have a personal conversation where we will find out if you and our program belong together. This application form and all its data will only be read and used by the BINGN coordinators.

Send your application electronically to elizabethwirsching@gmail.com, or send it per mail to:

II. Curriculum Vitae

We would like to have an overview of your different life stages (schools, educations, work- and other experiences). Key points will be enough, but feel free to describe your most important stages shortly if you think it will help us getting the right picture. Give timeframe, date and location for every stage.

III. Interest in biodynamic agriculture

We would like to ask you some questions about your motivation of becoming a farmer. For us it is very important to have an impression why you want to become a farmer and why you are interested in biodynamic farming.

Please take these questions seriously and take your time. Don't write too much, one or two lines for each question. Be honest and leave out the answer if you don't know what to say to a question.

Since when did you know, that you are interested in farming?

What is your interest in farming?

What was your strongest experience connected to farming?

Do you really want to become a farmer- or a co-worker - or something else?

Are you seriously interested in biodynamic farming – and if you are, why is that?
